

SUREX SURVEYORS

Surex Surveyors is committed to developing and maintaining a leading position in construction surveying.

Our goals are high customer satisfaction, continuous improvement of our products and offering exceptional services in all areas related to surveying in the construction industry.

We have professional and experienced teams which operate from our offices in Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne to deliver a range of surveying services

Great Employment Opportunity for Survey Graduates

Sydney Based Project

We are a survey practice specialising in providing survey solutions to large and small scale infrastructure projects, including, tunnels, roads, railways, buildings, bridges and drainage networks. With experience gained from being involved on numerous projects, we deliver a quality service in response to our clients' needs.

We are currently seeking Survey Graduates join our tight-knit team, and begin their rewarding career with us.

As part of our professional team of Surveyors, you will find yourself rewarded with an excellent salary package commensurate with skills and experience.

To apply for a position with us please forward your CV to admin@surex.com.au

surex.com.au

